THE DAYS OF SUMMER

No matter what age, what era, we all have our favorite song for the summer months. Whether it is “Surfin USA” by The Beach Boys, “Centerfield” by John Fogerty, “Summer of ’69” by Bryan Adams or “Summertime” by DJ Jazzy Jeff and the Fresh Prince (Will Smith); we all have our particular song that helps us relax, and reminds us that those days are upon us. We put into affect those plans that we made all year, and look forward to them. Work is put on hold and school is over, at least for a couple of months. There is though one responsibility in our life that there is no vacation from…our Church!

Our Spiritual life can not be looked upon the same way as our everyday life. Our faith is and should be the very nucleus of our life. We know that our Lord cares and watches over each and every one of us. The Church, His Home, is where God’s Word and work takes place, and we are invited to partake in this great Invitation (Parable of the Great Supper Lk. 14:15-24).

Our Church calls us no matter where we go, where we are, to attend faithfully. As we know that there are four seasons in the year, our Church is for all seasons. Can you imagine if God took a vacation from us?

During Summertime, The Divine Liturgy will still begin at 9:30am, and ends early enough for all of us to plan activities, or to just enjoy the day that has been blessed by God. There are many wonderful liturgical opportunities that our Church gives us during these summer months.

Many may enjoy a week or two off from our responsibilities and either stay local or travel abroad. Have you selected your summer reading list yet? Why not include in your summer reading the following: One or a few books from the Bible?...A spiritual book about our Orthodox Faith?...Our parish has a library of many books, you can also ask me for one of mine!!!

May you have not only have a physically relaxing summer, but also a summer of Spiritual reflection and growth, that way, when we begin the Ecclesiastical Year in September, we are able by the Grace of God to offer ourselves fully to God and His Church.

God bless,

Mary & Martha, the sisters of Lazarus

June 4

The Holy Myrrh-bearers Mary and Martha, together with their brother Lazarus, were especially devoted to our Savior, as we see from the accounts given in the tenth chapter of Saint Luke, and in the eleventh and twelfth chapters of Saint John. They reposed in Cyprus, where their brother became the first Bishop of Kition after his resurrection from the dead. See also the accounts on Lazarus Saturday and the Sunday of the Myrrh-bearing Women.

Alexander & Antonina the Martyrs

June 10

The holy Martyrs Alexander and Antonina were from the town of Cardamon (or Crodamon). Antonina was arrested by Festus the Governor and, because she refused to deny Christ, he had her placed in a brothel. But Alexander, sent by divine providence, came in unto her and gave her his cloak; with her head covered, she escaped without having been defiled. When Alexander was discovered, he was taken before Festus, and with Antonina was tortured and burned to death.

Monday of the Holy Spirit

As it is the custom of the Church, on the day after every great Feast, to honour those through whom it came to pass our Lady on the day after the Lord's Nativity, Joachim and Anna after our Lady's Nativity, the holy Baptist the day after Theophany, and so forth, on this day we honour our God the All-holy Spirit, the Comforter promised by our Saviour to His disciples (John 14:16), Who descended upon them at holy Pentecost and guided them "into all truth" (ibid. 16:13), and through them, us. Rest from labour.

Appearance of the Icon of Our Most Holy Lady the Theotokos of Tikhvin

June 26

According to one tradition, this icon was painted by Saint Luke the Evangelist. It was formerly situated in the famous Church of Blachernae in Constantinople. In 1383, it appeared upon the waters of Lake Ladoga, whence it travelled miraculously through the air to the city of Tikhvin; there, it remained by the River Tikhvinka, and a monastery was built to shelter the icon. In 1613-14 this monastery miraculously withstood the many attacks of the Swedish invaders. In the early twentieth century it was brought to America and was returned to Russia in 2004. The holy icon is renowned for a great many miracles wrought through it by the all-holy Mother of God, especially for the healing of children.
Deposition of the Precious Robe of the Theotokos in Blachernae
July 2

During the reign of Leo the Great (457-474) two patricians and brethren on a pilgrimage to the Holy Land lodged with an old widow, a Christian of Jewish descent. Seeing the many miracles wrought at a small shrine in her house, they pressed her until she revealed to them that she had raiment of the most holy Theotokos kept in a small coffer. Our Lady had had two virgins in her lifetime who attended upon her; before her holy dormition, she gave each of them one of her divine garments as a blessing. This old widow was of the family of one of those two virgins, and it had come through the generations into her hands. With the permission of God, that this holy relic might be had for the profit of many, the two men took the garment by stealth and brought it to Blachernae near Constantinople, and building a church in honor of the Apostles Peter and Mark, they secretly enshrined the garment therein. But here again, because of the multitude of miracles that were worked, it became known to the Emperor Leo, and a magnificent church was built, as some say, by that same Leo, but according to others, by his predecessors Marcian and Pulcheria, and enlarged by Leo when the holy raiment was found. The Emperor Justin the Younger completed the church, which the Emperor Romanus IV Diogenes raised up immediately again after it had burned in 1070. It burned again in 1434, and from that time it remained a small house of prayer together with the renowned holy spring. After the seventh century, the name Blachernae was given to other churches and monasteries by their pious founders out of reverence for this famous church in Constantinople. In this church John Catacuzene was crowned in 1345; also, the Council against Acindynus, the follower of Barlaam, was convoked here (see the Second Sunday of the Great Fast

Aquila the Apostle among the 70
July 14

Saint Aquila, who was from Pontus of Asia Minor, was a Jew by race and a tent-maker by trade. In the year 52 he and his wife Priscilla were in Corinth when Saint Paul first came there. They gave him hospitality, and the Apostle remained with them for many days, himself working at the same trade as they (Acts 18:2-3). And having believed in Christ through Paul, they followed him from that time on, working together with him and suffering perils with him for the sake of the preaching of the Gospel, as he himself testifies concerning them in his Epistle to the Romans, saying: "Greet Priscilla and Aquila, my helpers in Christ Jesus: who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the nations" (Rom. 16:3-4). When and where they reposed is unknown.

Mary Magdalene, The Holy Myrrh-bearer and Equal to the Apostles
July 22

Saint Mary was from Magdala in Galilee on the Sea of Tiberias, and for this was named Magdalene. When the Lord Jesus cast out seven demons from her, from which she had been suffering, she became His faithful and inseparable disciple, following Him and ministering unto Him even to the time of His crucifixion and burial. Then, returning to Jerusalem together with the rest of the Myrrh-bearers, she prepared the fragrant spices for anointing the body of the Lord. And on the Lord's day they came very early to the tomb, even before the Angels appeared declaring the Resurrection of the Lord. When Mary Magdalene saw the stone taken away from the tomb, she ran and proclaimed it to Peter and John. And returning immediately to the tomb and weeping outside, she was deemed worthy to be the first of the Myrrh-bearers to behold the Lord arisen from the dead, and when she fell at His feet, she heard Him say, "Touch Me not." After the Lord's Ascension, nothing certain is known concerning her. Some accounts say that she went to Rome and later returned to Jerusalem, and from there proceeded to Ephesus, where she ended her life, preaching Christ. Although it is sometimes said that Saint Mary Magdalene was the "sinful woman" of the Gospel, this is nowhere stated in the tradition of the Church, in the sacred hymnology, or in the Holy Gospels themselves, which say only that our Lord cast seven demons out of her, not that she was a fallen woman. "Madeleine" is a form of Magdalene.

Stewardship

In business, you may hear the Pareto Principle explaining that 20% of the workers produce 80% of the results. In civic groups, the same might be said about volunteers—20% of them do 80% of the work. This 80/20 idea started as an observation from Vilfredo Pareto, an Italian economist, who observed in 1906 that 20% of the population in Italy owned 80% of the land. All sorts of unequal distributions have been noted: 20% of the computer bugs cause 80% of the crashes. So it’s not surprising that 80/20 has even become a remedy for the common complaint: “I don’t have enough time.”

Task management experts would tell us to track our days in 15 minute increments and write down our specific activities. After creating such a log for a while, we would be able to identify our time wasters. Cut out the time wasters and now you have time for what is really important. Investing your time in the 20% of what is important, will give you 80% of your desired goal. Okay, sounds reasonable. The hard part is identifying what is most important to you.

Most of the members of the Stewardship Ministry attended the recent or previous discussion on Stewardship offered by the Metropolis. Exciting ideas that we will be sharing with you during the summer and remainder of the year.

At St. Nicholas, we don’t follow the 80/20 rule. Those who participate in the activities of the parish are not the few but the many. Those of you who think you are too busy to serve in a ministry may find that when you consider what is most important to you, you will decide to serve. We serve because Stewardship is what we do after we say, “I believe in God.” The details of our daily lives must bear witness to how that belief transforms us. We are a church. Our mission is Salvation, to be with Christ. Serving in ministries weaves together our social and faith threads. In addition to enjoying laughter, and fun, we indirectly encourage each other in the virtues of humility, forgiveness, patience, and diligence. We see past any irritations and catch glimpses of Christ in others. Do you accept the teachings of Christ and want to spread His message? You are a disciple. That’s the definition. We are disciples, not club members, not volunteers. Maybe in some organizations, it would be okay for only 20% of the people to work in, and reap the benefits of the group. But can you imagine that in a church? Too sad to even imagine that only 20% of our family would be with Christ. NO 80/20 rule for the disciples at St. Nicholas!

Respectfully submitted, Penelope Tzougros, Stewardship Chair

Church School

The Church School would like to thank all of the teachers, parents and students for another wonderful year! Our Church School program has grown, and continued to grow throughout the year. We hope everyone enjoyed graduation and the community cookout. We look forward to the next school year!
Our Greek School academic year has come to an end. We feel it was a fruitful and rewarding year for teachers and students alike.

At this time, we would like to give a brief summary of our events and programs for this past school year.

We began our classes on Saturday, September 15\textsuperscript{th} with an \textit{“Agiasmo”} by Fr. Demetri. Father blessed our staff, students and classrooms, which was a good school beginning.

In October we celebrated \textit{“Oxi” Day} here at St. Nicholas and at the Maliotis Center.

During the month of November, we had the first of our fundraisers, which was the \textit{Thanksgiving Drawing.”} This and our other fundraiser, the \textit{“Apokriatiko Glendi”} helps us to purchase books and other materials for our students as well as give some financial help to our dance groups.

During December, teachers and students sang the traditional \textit{Greek Calanda} in the Church hall.

The \textit{Feast of the Three Hierarchs}, or, \textit{“Greek Letters Day,”} as it is also known, was celebrated at the end of January. On that Sunday, students read short essays on the lives of these three great luminaries of our faith. We also participated at the Maliotis Center.

In February our school sponsored the \textit{Apokriatiko Glendi}, which was a success. The Glendi is a wonderful event which brings together our community families and their friends to enjoy an evening of terrific fellowship, good listening and dance music, and, of course, great mezedakia. It’s also an evening whereby the children can “show off” their latest Greek dances.

In March we celebrated \textit{Greek Independence Day} and the \textit{Feast Day of the Annunciation}. The students did a superb job with their recitations, songs, and dances. We also had a power point presentation of the Greek Heroes of 1821.

In April, we joined our parish in the \textit{Boston Parade}. We had a beautiful \textit{float} in which our students dressed in their Greek costumes and rode in the float. The children thoroughly enjoyed this experience. This was the first year that we had so many of our parishioners participating. All in all it was a great day.

In April, we were proud that one of our students, \textit{Sonya Alam}, was chosen the winner from all Greek Schools of the Diocese as having the best essay, “The Heroes of 1821.” Sonya read her essay at the \textit{State House} where many political and religious dignitaries were present. You make us proud, Sonya!

Also, during the month of May, the Greek School sponsored a \textit{Greek Island Taverna Night}. The hall décor looked absolutely beautiful. Everyone enjoyed the food, music and dancing. The live music was by \textit{the Greek Music Group Taximi}, the Island dances by \textit{the Lykeion Ellinidon}. It was a beautiful evening, and we were able to raise $2,100 towards the “Burn the Mortgage Fund.” We especially thank Sandra and Mark Miminios, Bob and Stephanie DeVasto, Felia Proakis, Kathy Dimas, Christine Vallas, Emily Yanakis, Evelyn Milona, Lela Digenis, Gloria Doukakis, and Tina Pappas.

At this time we take great pride to announce that several of our students took the various Greek Profiency Exams. Those students were: Sonya Alam, Othon Pagounias, Kimon Pagounias, Irakli Pagounias, Nicholas Manickas-Hill, Elizabeth Maimonis, Irini Khoury, Sofia Khoury, Katrina Sousounis and Basili Sousounis. The results from these exams will be announced sometime during July. We wish them the very best.

Our Greek School Graduation Party was on May 31, 2013. During this reception three of our students, Katrina, Basil and Christopher Sousounis performed their piano recital pieces followed by a slide show, Greek songs and dances. However, Certificates of Promotion and Diplomas were given on Sunday, June 2nd following Liturgy. We had one graduate – Sonya Alam.

Our Greek School also sponsored several Coffee Fellowships and made monetary contributions to St. Basils, Holy Cross Seminary and to our Church.

To close, we take this opportunity to thank Fr. Demetri for his support to our Greek School, thank our teachers and assistants for their dedication, hard work and love shown for our students, to the parents who bring their children faithfully every Saturday, and to our students who come to class with a smile, leave with a smile and of course, learn something new each week. After all, these are the children who will pass on the Greek language, culture and faith to their children. We also wish Sophia Grammenos our preschool and adult teacher congratulations for her Fulbright Scholarship to spend a year in Greece teaching at Athens College in Psychico, one of the most prestigious Schools in Greece. And lastly, (but most important) we thank our parishioners and friends for supporting our events and programs during the year with their Presence, Talents and Treasure.

We wish everyone a great and healthy summer. Καλό σας Καλοκαιρί!

ΓΛΟΡΙΑ/ΛΕΛΑ

GOYA

The GOYA will be participating in its third Habitat for Humanity day in Acton on Saturday, June 15th. After two enjoyable days of volunteering, we decided to sign up for a third.

We will also be having an afternoon of Ultimate Knockout at the Lexington basketball courts on Sunday, June 23rd after Church. Thanks to all the GOYA members and parents for another great year.

HEALTH AND WELLNESS

The health and Wellness Ministry is looking for your input! We are hoping to start a new program in the fall. It will be a variation of “The Biggest Loser” TV show. It will consist of meeting once a week for exercise and nutritional guidance. All are welcome to attend. The program is in the planning stages so please let us know, if you are interested, what times / days of the week work best for you.

Thank you.
God Bless and be well!! Judy Gray

Trivia Night: Part Two was held on May 18th and was once again an overwhelming success! Though the event was not a complete sell-out, those that attended agreed that it was an evening full of laughs, spirited competition and fellowship. In total, we raised $4,000 towards the fund-raising line item in the budget and are considering a “Trivia with a Twist” event post-festival (details to follow).

I would like to thank our 6 round sponsors whose generosity covered our only expenses of the evening: the cost of the DJ and the pizza:

Judy and Tony Gray
The Tanionos Family
The Norse Family
Daphne and Nector Ritzakis (yay!!!!)
The Decoulos Family
The Tsaros Family

I would also like to thank all of the other donors whose offerings helped defray ALL of the costs associated with the event and you, the parishioners, who came with family and friends to support St. Nicholas. Lastly, I would like to extend an enormous thank you to the members of the Social Committee, whose efforts and time made this event possible.

Our next scheduled event is a Christmas Bazaar to be held in November. For this event, we are looking for those talented individuals to make and donate their crafts to be sold not only to our St. Nicholas community, but to the Lexington community at large. This will be held at a perfect time for people to be doing their holiday shopping, so please see Marcy Norse or Hope Tsacoyeanes if you would like to help with this event. We are going to need many hands to make this a success.

Other events may be in the works, so please look for meeting updates in your weekly bulletins. Thank you!!!!

Marcy Norse

Help Us Save!

Many of our parishioners have agreed to have their monthly newsletter sent to them electronically and we thank them for allowing us to so, thus saving on postage. However, there are those who do have e-mail, but have elected to continue receiving their monthly newsletter through the mail. Because postal rates continue to rise, we are making every effort to reign in our costs. Please call the church office (781-862-6453) and get on our e-mail list. Everyone's help is needed. Thank you.

THE LORD'S PRAYER ON PENTECOST SUNDAY

On Sunday, June 23 our Church celebrates Holy Pentecost. The Feast of Pentecost, which happened and is always celebrated 50 days after the Resurrection of our Lord. At Pentecost, the disciples received the Holy Spirit as tongues of fire, fulfilling the promise that Christ had given them while He was still with them. This spirit was the Comforter who would lead them into the fullness of the Truth concerning God and would be for them their final preparatory gift from God for their ministry. As Orthodox Christians we each receive the seal of the Holy Spirit when we are chrismated into the Faith. This is our personal Pentecost. This feast reminds us of our apostolic calling as baptized and chrismated members of the Church to spread the Gospel in word and deed wherever we happen to find ourselves in the world.

With this in mind we will have the “Lord’s Prayer” during The Divine Liturgy in as many languages as possible. We ask that all who know a foreign language to please be with us on this day and either say the prayer from memory or with the text in front of you.

2013 COLLEGE GRADUATES

CASSANDRA GARIBALDI: My name is Cassandra Garibaldi. I am from Dracut, MA. I few weeks ago I graduated from Hellenic College majoring in Religious Studies, minoring in Elementary Education. I have applied to the Master's of Divinity program at Holy Cross and I am waiting to be accepted. I am also an Ambassador for Hellenic College Holy Cross, and I have the opportunity to travel across America and represent our school. I am very active in the youth ministries of the Metropolis of Boston. This will be my 5th summer as a staff member at the Metropolis of Boston Camp. I will be at MBC this summer for all 6 weeks of camp. As most of you know, I am the 3rd grade Church School teacher. I enjoy working with youth and helping them to become closer to Christ and our faith. God willing, I would like to one day work in a Parish or Metropolis as a youth director. I am blessed to be apart of the St. Nicholas family!

ANTHONY WILLIAM GRAY III: I graduated from Acton-Boxborough High School in 2009. I attended Endicott College in Beverly MA and graduated on May 24th with a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice. I plan on pursuing a career in law enforcement. I have been a part of the St. Nicholas family my entire life and am so grateful for all the kindness, guidance, love and support I have received through my high school and college years. Thank you Father Demetri and all of my family at St. Nicholas! God bless you all!!!!!

PETER TREARCHIS: For the past four years I attended UMASS Lowell and am proud to say I graduated earlier in May summa cum laude with a Bachelor's degree in chemical engineering and a minor in mathematics. While in college I tried to get involved with various different clubs, as well as honor societies. I was fortunate enough to have three internships and studied abroad for a semester in Swansea, Wales. I have been a member of St. Nicholas for at least 10 years now and greatly enjoyed being a part of GOYA and participating in the church festivals, Good Friday retreats, and Christmas pageants. Starting in June I will be working as an Engineer at Pfizer in Andover and plan to go to graduate school for engineering and/or business part-time or full-time in the future.

ALEXIS NICOLE ZALLAS: The daughter of Nicholas and Maria Zallas, is a Biology Major at Regis College, Weston MA, and has recently been named the Valedictorian of her graduating class. She has also been accepted to the University of Missouri College of Veterinary Medicine in Columbia, MO as one of 120 students in the Class of 2017. Along with the help of dedicated staff, Alexis’ love for science and passion for animal medicine allowed her to successfully accomplish her degree. She intends to pursue a dual DVM (Doctor of Veterinary Medicine)/Master of Public Health Degree in order to work for the Centers for Disease Control and/or apply for a Small Animal Surgery residency after receiving her DVM. During her four years at Regis, Alexis has acted as a peer tutor in biology, chemistry, and math. She is an 18th Century historical reenactor, and at St. Nicholas, she has volunteered to help with flower arrangements for church services, dance instruction, office work, chanting, and GOYA."
2013 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

MATTHEW KOKKINOS: Hi, I'm Matthew Kokkinos, a senior at Acton-Boxborough Regional High School. I have enjoyed the community at Saint Nicholas, where I have been an altar boy for eight years and in GOYA for six years. In September, I'll attend Northeastern University to study International Relations and Environmental Sciences. Throughout high school, I participated in Congressional Debate and was a member of the Marching and Symphony Band.

THAYA PSYHOJOS: This spring I will graduate from Lexington High School. I have been going to St. Nicholas my whole life, and I have been involved in many different church activities. I have enjoyed my time spent learning in weekly Sunday school lessons, researching and presenting in Oratorical festivals, participating in GOYA activities, and helping out during festivals. Next year I will be attending Cornell University, and I will definitely miss my St. Nicholas family!

CHRISTOS SALEDAS: This spring, I am graduating from Burlington High School. I was christened at St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Church. I have been active in my Church community by attending Greek School and Sunday school lessons, serving in the Altar, and being involved in GOYA. I have also been a part of Boy Scouts and my Eagle project was done in the church. In the fall I will be attending the University of Massachusetts Amherst, College of Natural Science.

JASON VAFIADES: This year I am graduating from Bedford High School, class of 2013. I will be attending the University of Connecticut and majoring in Biomedical Engineering in a Pre-Dental tract. In high school I was a part of the swim team, and I plan on being part of either the Division 1 team or the club swim team at college. UConn is the only public university in the country where there is a Greek Orthodox Church on campus. A lot of Greek Orthodox students attend UConn for this reason. I was baptized here at St. Nicholas and have been part of the community since then. I stay as involved as I can, attending more than just the church services. I have been active in GOYA, serve in the Altar and love helping out at the Greek Festivals. I am in the process of attaining Eagle rank in Boy Scouts. For my Eagle Project, I am almost finished building a cabinet for the Altar. This past summer I went to Ionian Village Greece Orthodox Summer Camp, in Bartholomio Greece. I went to the MBC camp in New Hampshire this winter and saw many of my friends from I.V. there. I also went to the I.V. reunion in Washington D.C. in early March and had a great time seeing them again. I plan to continue to be active in my religion.

SPEROS VARINOS: Is graduating from Masconomet Regional High School and will be attending Tufts University in the fall. Speros is a member of the National Honor Society and is a peer leader to the freshman class, and he is a captain of the Masco baseball team. At Tufts he will be studying pre medicine hoping to eventually go on to medical school. Speros will also be playing baseball for the Tufts Jumbos.

GEORGE VELONIAS: St. Nicholas. A wonderful church and community filled with love. I was Christened at St. Nicholas by Father Anthony in 1996, and since, St. Nicholas has been my home. I attended Church School, Greek School and Greek Dance for many years. In my sixth year of Greek School, I started the Greek Language Certification program and achieved 3 out of 4 levels of Greek Language Certification by my sophomore year in High School. For the past four years I have also been an assistant teacher for the Greek School, which has given me an opportunity to get to know and help the younger kids of St. Nicholas. I have enjoyed working with them and watching them grow, all the while remembering my younger days at St. Nicholas. Next year, I will be studying at Brandeis University. In the meantime, I am looking forward to a relaxing summer with family, friends, working, fishing and a trip to Greece.
A Taste of Greece makes a return to St. Nicholas this fall. All parishioners are asked to save these dates on their calendars—Friday, Saturday and Sunday, September 20, 21 and 22—to volunteer and attend with their family and friends. This is a major fundraiser for our parish.

Festival co-chairs Lou Saledas and Marcy Norse have described the goal of the festival as providing an opportunity for parishioners to know each better by working closely for the benefit of the parish, both spiritually and financially, and to show our external community what makes us Orthodox and Greek.

The festival committee chairs are asking parishioners to determine in what capacity they can volunteer. The committees and their chairs to date are as follows:

Food committee: Leo Panagiotou, Mark Miminios, Frank Fotis

Logistics: Dave Vafiades, Jim Decoulos

Beverages: Judy and Tony Gray

Publicity/Marketing: Maria Decoulos and Pam Giannatsis

Advertising/Program Book – Melanie Tanionos and Stephanie DeVasto

Pastry sales: Philoptohos

Loukoumades: Marina Wouralis and Georgia Saledas

Raffle: GOYA

Entertainment to date includes Greek bands on Friday and Saturday evenings, and performances by the St. Nicholas Youth Dance group and Sons and Daughters of Alexander the Great.

Plans for food preparation work shops and other tasks will be announced shortly. Please be prepared to sign up to volunteer, on sheets in St. Irene’s Hall.

This is a parish event you won’t want to miss!

Summer Camp is a week of fun, fellowship and faith. Campers will have the opportunity to meet other youth from throughout the Metropolis, while participating in camp activities including: campfires, theater, music, hiking, swimming, Olympics, athletics, canoeing, Orthodox Life discussion sessions, and much more.

Camp is a wonderful opportunity to make new friends and re-new old friendships, and is also a time for young Orthodox Christians to learn about their faith, values and heritage in a fun and relaxed atmosphere.

We look forward to seeing you there!

The Metropolis of Camp is home to over 700 campers and families each summer. Our program is built on the foundation of six pillars - honesty, respect, openness, trust, love and forgiveness, and centered on engaging each other through FUN, faith and fellowship. We offer six different unique camping experiences each summer and through the efforts of His Eminence Metropolitan Methodios we are pleased to offer three different types of ministry through our camp; one is to youth (ages 8 - 18), the second is to FAMILIES (all ages), and the third is to campers with special needs through our embracing children program.
SATURDAY OF SOULS

Following the Liturgical cycle of the Church, the day before Pentecost Sunday, the Church remembers those who have fallen asleep (just as the three Saturdays of Souls that fall during the Triodion). This Saturday of Souls will take place on Saturday June 22 beginning with Orthros at 8:30am and The Divine Liturgy at 9:30am. On these Memorial Saturdays commemoration is made on behalf of all those who have fallen asleep unknown or who have been otherwise remembered, as well as for all the faithful departed in Christ. Our faith teaches that not until the Second Coming of our Lord and His Final Judgment, will final retribution be made to every man according to his works, and that meanwhile the souls of the faithful departed are benefited by the prayers of the living, especially when offered in conjunction with the Divine Liturgy.

Adjacent you will find a commemoration slip on which to write the first name (Christian name) of your deceased loved ones so that they may be remembered at the special Memorial Services to be held on the three Memorial Saturdays. It is a tradition for the faithful to bring koliva (boiled wheat) on these Saturdays as is done for Memorials. The koliva are prepared and offered as a symbol of the resurrection of the dead, recalling the words of our Lord: “Truly, truly, I say to you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone; but if it dies, it bears fruit.” (John 12:24) If you plan to prepare a small dish of koliva for the Memorial Service please bring the koliva to church by 9:00am. You may mail or bring the slips to the church office or leave them in the offering basket. Please do so, however, before the day of the Liturgy.

The following is a hymn for the Saturday of Souls: “O you faithful, remembering today by name all the dead from all the ages who have lived in piety and faith, let us sing praises to the Lord and Savior, asking Him fervently to give them in the hour of judgment a good defense before our God who judges all the earth. May they receive a place at His right hand in joy, may they dwell in glory with the righteous and the saints, and be counted worthy of His heavenly kingdom.”

May their memories be eternal!

For the repose of the souls of the servants of God.
